

FOR THE TRIBUNE-REVIEW
Monday, June 30, 2008

Good Grief

Losing a loved one is never easy. Saying goodbye can be unbearable. But mourners can be helped through the grieving process at the Good Grief Center, a bereavement support facility that cut the ribbon on its new Squirrel Hill office.

Beyond the four walls is a compassionate haven for healing and working through sadness by talking, reading or watching a video. On Monday, over 150 guests came to inspect GGC's new quarters that have doubled in size from its former location in Homestead. The Fluted Mushroom deliciously catered the grand opening that was flowered with beautiful yellow roses by Blooms.

Founder and director Lulu Orr, with board chair Dr. Mark Miller and Dr. Joan Devine, greeted Jean and Brooks Robinson; Betsy and Lee Deiseroth; Grant Oliphant; Aradhna Dhanda; Lisa Schroeder; David Kahley; Alan Dunn; Prentiss Orr; Nancy Zions; Joni Schwagger; Rachel Walton and Fran Wymard; Marguerite Jarrett Marks; Faith and Alex Moser; and Dr. Loren Roth.

-- JoAnne Harrop